SUIT AGAINST AUGUST BELMONT & CO.

Miss Charlotta von Kuehnau, who is contesting ing that the will offered for probate by the dead man's brother, Edward J. Messemer, was not his last will, and alleging that by a later will the bulk of the estate was bequeathed to her, has also began a suit against August Belmont & Co., the bankers, through which she seeks to recover $4.698.91 on bills of exchange duly indersed by Corner Messemer and assigned to her. The bills were grawn on the Rothschilds through Belmont & Co., and payment was refused by the Rothschilds on the request of Edward J. Messemer. Justice Andrews has decided that Edward J. Messemer should interplead as defendant.

INSPECTING A NEW OFFICE BUILDING.

THE POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY SHOWS VISITORS THROUGH ITS BIG STRUCTURE,

The Postal Telegraph-Cable Company and the Commercial Cable Company, having got well set-tied in the big new Postal Telegraph Building, No. 233 Broadway, at Murray-st., last evening invited the officers of the Western Union Telegraph Company, the Metropolitan Telephone Company and ess associations to inspect the new structure. The invitations were accepted by many persons, who wandered over the great building 6 and 10 p. m. Those who were familiar with the cience of electricity found the operating-room and the cellar the most interesting places to linger in. It was to be expected that a building which has just been finished would contain all the newest up to their expectation and beyond it. Passersby in Broadway have become familiar with the exterior of the Postal Telegraph Building. with the exterior of the Postal Telegraph out a tour of inspection through it reveals many features which would appeal to every one. In the first place, the building, it is declared, has not a loot of waste space. Even the airshaft is used for a loot of waste space. Even the airshaft is used for a

ANNIVERSARY OF THE EVACUATION OF PHILA-DELPHIA.

Philadelphia, June 18.—The Pennsylvania Sons of the Revolution celebrated the Hi6th anniversary of the British evacuation of this city. About 150 members and guests left here this morning on Hay.

"King Pharaoh," or John Hannibal, as he was known in private life, the last person known to have a right to the throne of the once mighty Montauk Nation of Indians, died at his home, in Franklinville, Suffolk County, yesterday, at the age of eighty-seven years. His mother was a full-blooded Indian, and through her he derived his title, "King Pharaon."

MR. WIMAN'S DAY IN THE TOMBS.

Much of Erastus Wiman's time in the Tomb his friends. Early in the morning visitors began his friends. Early in the morning visitors began to arrive, and the Warden ordered him to be brought from his cell to receive them. Mr. Wiman is treated in the Tombs as an ordinary prisoner, though the Warden permits him to meet his friends whenever they call. But they are calling all the time. Flowers are constantly sent to him by his friends, and many other tokens of regard. His eldest son was with him most of the time yesterday, and so was one of his sons-in-law.

An appeal has been prepared by some of his Staten Island neighbors to Justice Ingraham to regard the recommendation of the jury for mercy.
